Serving Business

The Belle Plaine Chamber of Commerce is a non-profit organization that is run by its members.

The Chamber of Commerce is organized to develop, encourage, promote and protect the commercial, professional, financial and general business interests of the Belle Plaines area; educating the business community and representing them in city, county, state and national legislative and political affairs.

The Belle Plaine Chamber of Commerce uses four basic community development principles:

Organization: by maintaining a fiscally sound independent community development organization.

Design: by understanding appearance and function are important to maintaining vibrant business districts.

Promotion: of the business community through education, encouragement, promotion to protect the commercial, professional, financial and general business interests of its members and community.

Economic Development: by keeping and expanding and attracting business to the Belle Plaine community.
